(c) The CRPF and BSF are fully aleart and are taking neecssary anti-extremist measures.

Statement

Details of Incidents

Suspected terrorists attacked a CRPF platoon post stationed at village Kavirpur near Mand area, about 45 Kms from Kapurthala on 29-8-86. The post was fired from three sides. Immediately the fire was returned and the firing continued for about 40 minutes. On receipt of information, reinforcement reached the spot. The extremists, however, managed to escape under cover of darkness. No casualty from any side was reported.

On 28th August, 1986, a group of extremists of about 10 to 12 in number attacked a BSF post at Gidderpindi Bridge (Jalandhar district) and opened fire with automatic weapons from 3 directions. BSF persons retaliated the fire. In the exchange of the fire, 4 BSF personnel sustained bullet injuries. The extremists, thereafter managed to escape in the nearby wild growth in Mand areas.

On 28th August, 1986, a BSF Naka party of MW Uttar BOP, and not Mianwali, spotted 2 miscreants while crossing the border from Pakistan to India. The BSF Naka party challenged them to stop. On this, one of the miscreants opened fire on the Naka party. The Naka party fired in self-defence and as a result of it one of the miscreants died on the spot, whereas the other managed to escape to Pakistan under the cover of darkness and thick grow of sarkanda. The examination of the dead body revealed that the killed miscreant was of wheatish complexion, trimmed beard with moustaches. He had cut his hair and was not found to be circumcised. He is suspected to be a Sikh extremist.
